Numb. 10330.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 12, to Saturday July 16, 1763.

St. James's, July 16.

THE following Addreſs of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Leiceſter, having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Denbigh to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Leiceſter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty, with our Congratulations upon the Concluſion of a Safe and Honourable Peace, after having ſo long felt the Burthens and Miſeries of an expenſive and bloody, though neceſſary War.

As a Commercial Nation, we muſt be particularly ſenſible of the good Effects of Peace and Tranquility; but how much more intereſting are thoſe Effects, when Peace produces an Enlargement of Trade by the Increaſe of your Majeſty's Dominions.

It is with Concern we obſerve the Malevolence of ſome, who (notwithſtanding your Majeſty's univerſal Care for the Peace and Happineſs of your Subjects) attempt the Diviſion of a united People; and in Abhorrence of ſuch Meaſures, it will ever be our greateſt Ambition to diſcourage and diſcountenance whatever tends to offer Inſult to your Perſon, or Indignity to your Government.

We heartily join with thoſe who put a candid and equitable Conſtruction upon your Majeſty's unwearied Labours in the Service of theſe Kingdoms, which, having met with a Parliamentary Sanction, it is unqueſtionably the Duty of every loyal and good Subject to approve.

The following Addreſs of the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bridport, having been tranſmitted by the Earl of Coventry to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Exdellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Steward, Recorder, Bayliffs and Capital Burgeſſes of the Borough of Bridport in the County of Dorſet, with Hearts full of the moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's conſtant Attention to the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Return of the long wiſhed for Bleſſings of Peace, by the Reſtoration of which (in the midſt of Victory and Conqueſt) will be equally ſignalized the Humanity, as well as the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign.

May a due Senſe of the many diſtinguiſhed Bleſſings your Majeſty's Subjects now enjoy, inſpire them all with loyalty, Love of domeſtick Tranquility, and of Obedience to the Laws of God, and of their Country. Theſe Principles ſo eſſential to their Happineſs, as we feel them ſtrong in ourſelves, we ſhall with our utmoſt Care endeavour to implant in others, and with unwearied Diligence to inforce the Practice of, within the Limits of our own Magiſterial Authority.

With the moſt unfeigned Sincerity we ſhall always pray, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and happy, and over a grateful and an affectionate People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the Second Day of July, in the Third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and other Members of the Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Archibald Edmonſtone, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Dumbarton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and other Members of the Town-Council of the Royal Burgh of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to bear a Part in the chearful Congratulations, paid to your Majeſty by all your dutiful Subjects, upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of a Peace more Honourable and Advantageous, than had ever been concluded by any Britiſh Monarch.

Though we bear but an inferior Rank among the opulent Cities of your Majeſty's Dominions, yet as we have the diſtinguiſhed Honour to have been a Part of the ancient Domains of your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtors, we could not be ſilent upon ſuch a joyful and inviting Occaſion, wherein we may take the Liberty to expreſs the like loyal Affection to our preſent gracious Maſter, which has ever glowed in the Hearts of our Predeceſſors to theſe of your Royal Line, through many paſt Generations.

Unequal to the Subject, we leave it to others who are better acquainted with the Adminiſtration of Publick Affairs, more worthily, as well as juſtly, to celebrate the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Majeſty's Councils amidſt jarring Intereſts, and the tender Regard which your Majeſty has expreſſed to the real Intereſts of your Subjects, in directing theſe Terms of Peace, to which your Enemies have acquieſced; and which have derived Bleſſings even to the Unthankful in your Dominions, if it could be ſuppoſed that there were any Subjects of ſuch an odious and ungrateful Temper living under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government: In our more humble and diſtant Sphere, we beg Leave only to add our moſt ardent Prayers and Wiſhes,

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long, happy, and proſperous, over a loyal, affectionate, and thankful People. In this Rank preſuming to vye with the wiſeſt, moſt powerful, and moſt opulent Societies in your Majeſty's now more widely extended Deminions.

Signed at Renfrew, on the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three Years, in Name and by Appointment of Magiſtrates and Town-Council, by James Campbell, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Heritors and Freeholders of the County of Stirling, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noble[illegible]

ling, met at Stirling this Sixteenth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three Years.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen and Gentlemen of Stirling-Shyre, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to join with our Fellow Britons in their Congratulations on that Peace, which, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, has given us the ſureſt Preſage of a happy and laſting Tranquility.

The Allwiſe Diſpoſer of Events ſeems to have called your Majeſty to the glorious Taſk of reſtoring Peace to Europe, humbling the natural Foes of our envied Liberty, and extending the Britiſh Rule over Nations hitherto unknown, as a temporary Reward of thoſe eminent Virtues, ſo conſpicuous in every Part of our beloved Sovereign's Deportment, whether in private or publick Life.

Though we have found Words to expreſs ſome ſmall Part of the Joy we feel in the many ſignal Bleſſings we taſte of under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, yet we are truly at a Loſs to expreſs our Horror of, and Indignation againſt, thoſe Sons of Faction and Sedition, who take Pleaſure in endeavouring to blaſt the opening Fruits of your Majeſty's wiſe and gracious Adminiſtration; and have even dared to inſult our our beloved Sovereign, whoſe Perſon, Crown and Dignity, as he continues to act as the true Father of his Country, we are bound and moſt willing to defend, at the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, and every Thing that is dear to us, as Men, as Chriſtians, and as Subjects of a King, who deſervedly reigns in the Hearts of His People.

Secure of the Affections of a loyal and dutiful Nation, we truſt, that the Splendor of your Majeſty's Regal Virtues will quickly diſſipate thoſe baleful Clouds, raiſed by wicked and profligate Men; while we, though far remote from the Seat of Government, ſhall never ceaſe to pray, that your Majeſty may long, very long, reign over a happy, united, and flouriſhing Kingdom.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointmnt, and in our Preſence, by Dunmore.

The following Addreſs of the States of the Iſland of Jerſey, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ancient and ever faithful Subjects, the States of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey, beg Leave to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majeſty upon the Concluſion of a Seaſonable, Safe, and Honourable Peace, accompliſhed with ſuch Moderation and Humanity, as beſpeaks your Majeſty's Paternal Regard to your People, and gives the ſtrongeſt Hopes, that the Bleſſings will be fully manifeſted by its happy Effects, and long Duration.

Permit us (who from our Situation have been more particularly expoſed) to expreſs our warmeſt Gratitude to your Majeſty for the gracious Attention ſhewn to our Security, during the Couſre of the late bloody and expenſive, but Glorious and Succesful War.

Your dutiful Subjects of this Iſland truly rejoice to ſee your Majeſty's Steadineſs, and Magnanimity, in Support of the juſt Rights of your People, crowned with the deſired Succeſs.

That your Majeſty may continue long to reign the Guardian of the Happineſs of a free, brave, and obedient People, and be bleſſed in every publick and private Relation, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and ever loyal Subjects.
